

Retention and Recertification Election Update 5/12/17

Timeline:

- For a certified employee organization that is a party to a collective bargaining agreement ending June 30, 2018, your anticipated retention and recertification election will be October 2017. PERB will be notifying you by email with more information in August.
- For a certified employee organization that is a party to a collective bargaining agreement ending July 1, 2018 through August 31, 2018, your anticipated retention and recertification election will be September 2017. PERB will be notifying you by email with more information in July and August.

Vendor: The Public Employment Relations Board is in the process of obtaining a vendor to conduct retention and recertification elections. This process will likely take until July.

Rules: Rules regarding the retention and recertification election likely will be adopted in July.

Please keep watching the website as we will provide more information when it is available.