DECISION AND ORDER

The above-entitled matter came on for argument before the full Board on May 17, 1976, pursuant to a Notice of Review issued by the Board on May 18, 1976.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On February 10, 1975, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, (AFSCME) filed a combined unit determination and certification petition with the Board, which proposed a bargaining unit of employees of the City of Marion. The City of Marion and AFSCME then stipulated to a bargaining unit and, upon completion of the necessary procedures required by the rules and regulations of the Board, a bargaining unit was determined which included in the unit employees of the Marion Public Library. A representation election was conducted on April 22, 1975, and by order dated November 14, 1975, as amended by order dated November 17, 1975, AFSCME Local No. 231 was certified as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees in the bargaining unit. These proceedings were in PERB Case No. 24.

On September 16, 1975, the Board issued a decision that the Cedar Rapids Public Library Board was the employer of library employees for purposes of collective bargaining under the Public Employment Relations Act (Act).^{1/} However, because the bargaining unit description approved for employees of the City of Marion did not specifically set out employees of the Library, it was apparently assumed that those employees were included in that unit. In any event, Library employees were placed on the eligibility list for the election in the City of Marion bargaining unit, and AFSCME commenced to represent those employees along with all other City of Marion employees, excepting those specifically excluded from the unit.

On December 15, 1975, the Marion Public Library Board of Trustees (Library Board) filed a petition requesting a reconsideration of the bargaining unit, alleging that the Library Board was the public employer of Library employees, and further requesting that those employees be severed from the original City of

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the unit found appropriate in Case No. 24 be amended to read as follows:

INCLUDED: All city employees except as excluded below.

EXCLUDED: Police officers, fire fighters, employees of the Board of Trustees of the Marion Municipal Water Department, employees of the Marion Library Board of Trustees, and all other supervisory employees of the City of Marion as defined by Section 4 of the Act.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Order of Certification in Case No. 24 be amended to show AFSCME Local No. 231 as the exclusive bargaining representative for the employees of the City of Marion in the unit as amended by this Order.
